THE MOST WORSHIPFUL GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS.

The Most Worshipful Grand Master delivered the following appropriate Masonic Address:

We are permitted again, my dear brethren, to assemble within "This sacred retreat of Friendship and Love." It is not as formerly we come from our quiet firesides, but from the turmoil and strife of a dismembered country.

The lowering cloud, so threatening in its character at your last Grand Annual Communication, soon after burst in its fury, involving our country in sectional warfare, and which has since been waged with unrelenting bitterness. Occasionally the gloom may have seemed to abate its wrath, but it was only to increase in strength, to renew the conflict with redoubled force.

It is with saddened hearts that we find that the baneful influence of this bitter strife has extended to and taken root within our Grand Jurisdiction. Upon the call of the roll, "silence prevails" in many Subordinates. We deeply deplore the absence of many brethren, whom we have been wont to greet with the most fraternal and social feelings.

We know that many who are absent are in the ranks, battling for our rights and our family altars, and let us in Charity at least hope, that many, if not all, located in disaffected portions of our State, are absent from military restrictions, and not from any estrangement of Masonic feelings, and that when the glad tidings of peace shall be sounded throughout our now oppressed land, when we shall have gained our independence, and have taken our stand amongst the nations of the earth, we trust, at least, then we shall see our Western and North Western brethren again in their places, united once more around our Holy Altar, joining in thanksgivings and praises to our Supreme Grand Master, for all His inestimable gifts; for the will and the means of resisting oppression, and, more especially, for His protecting hand, which guided us safely through our troubles.

War—dreadful war—brings with it many a scourge—truly may it be said to be "the times that try men's souls." It is well calculated deeply to exercise the Masonic's mind—brother meets brother in deadly strife. The principles of Masonry are outraged. By whom? Each may, and doubtless will, accuse the other. The battle-field is no place for discussion. Our country calls and our first duty under God is to obey. If our soil be polluted by an invader's tread, be he Mason or Profane, drive him back. We are bound to protect our property, our families and ourselves. Should the Square and Compass glitter on the breasts of an advancing foe, use it as a mark, and bring the invader to the dust. He fights under false colors; he violates the fundamental objects of the Order; he is unworthy of your confidence and protection; he uses the symbols of the Order for mercenary purposes and would prostitute its Holy principles. A true Mason invades the rights of no man; on the contrary, espouses the cause of the oppressed.

The battle over, visit the field of carnage and give the most extended scope to your Masonic feelings,—administer to the sufferers all the comforts at your command; treat kindly those whom the fortunes of war have thrown in your power, regarding that a fallen and prostrate foe is no longer our enemy; but conquered, he should excite our pity. An unresisting foe should soften the asperities of our nature, and entitle him at our hands to the exercise of that most exalted attribute of Deity—Mercy.

These are the teachings of Masonry; the exercise thereof, the fruits—blending most happily in the true Masonic character the valiant warrior and the good Samaritan.

The causes which at present disturb the Masonic Circle, and which have produced some "confusion amongst the workmen," should not weaken our faith in the Holy influence of Masonry, or tend to lessen our interest in the Order. On the contrary, should call forth greater efforts to adhere to its precepts and to protect it from innovation. The institution is faultless; the error lies in the administration thereof. The desire to increase in numbers induced a laxity in administration, often introducing discordant material, which was only numerical strength, to tumble the edifice to its foundation. This is not peculiar to Masonry; we find it in all institutions. The religion of our fathers was no less true and effective, because a Pharaoh was permitted to scourge God's chosen people. They, through many trials and tribulations, found at last the promised land.

Let us continue "our trust in God;" unflinchingly use all the means in our hands to correct the evils that exist; patiently submit to His will. He, in His own time, will reveal His purpose. Let us humbly, but earnestly beseech Him so to soften the hearts of our enemies, that they may be brought to a knowledge of the error of their ways; and let us cherish the fervent hope that the future may reveal many good and true brethren of the North over whose houses the Destroying Angel passed because of the seal on their doors. In God's name we would greet all such with a fraternal grasp in the feelings of Masonic love.

So far it has not come to our knowledge, that many, if any, of our prominent Masonic brethren North are engaged in this unholy crusade against us, and therefore we trust their hearts are with us, and that their surroundings only prevent an interference in our behalf. Their inaction will be moral weight in our scale.

In December last I was addressed by the Most Wor. Grand Master of Massachusetts, Bro. Winslow Lewis, upon the state of our then country. His purpose was to enlist the officers of the several Grand Masonic Bodies in an effort to effect a reconciliation. The rules of our Order forbidding any interference with politics as a body—and to act individually, it would be difficult to separate in the minds of the Profane, the individual from the officer—I did not therefore feel at liberty to encourage the movement. The correspondence will be found in the papers of the Grand Master (No. 3), and should the Committee to whom they will be referred think them of sufficient importance for your consideration, they will report them to you. The letter of Bro. Lewis was copied in all the Masonic papers North, and extensively commented on. The reply was not published.

With sorrowing hearts, we look around and search in vain amongst the assemblage for an esteemed brother, whose genial face was wont to greet us at every Grand Annual Communication. Alas! we shall see him no more on earth—our beloved brother, O. M. CRUTCHFIED, Past Grand Master, is dead.

Full of honors and full of years, his earthly career was closed on the — day of ——— last.

The sprig of acacia, consecrated by the tears of a wide circle of mourning friends, now marks the last resting place of the illustrious dead—and whilst it typifies our firm belief in the immortality of the soul, it is emblematical of a fervent and well-grounded hope, that the spirit of our departed brother now rests in peace with his God.

By reference to Chap. V. of Methodical Digest, it will be observed, that the trial of an Affiliated Mason for un-Masonic conduct is confined to the Lodge of which the delinquent is a member. This, to some extent, gives a license to immorality, and may continue the connection of an unworthy member guilty of offences committed in a sister jurisdiction to which he may have removed. In many instances, such go unpunished, because of the difficulties attending a trial under such circumstances. The same authority now delegated to Subordinate Lodges to arraign and try its own members should be extended so as to embrace all Masons residing or committing offences within their jurisdiction.

In the same chapter the right is given to expel a Mason forever, and the authority to re-instate seems to make no distinction between one simply expelled and one expelled forever. If both can be re-instated, whence the necessity of a distinction in the sentence? If it be the design of the Grand Lodge, as the language would import, that one expelled forever should never be re-instated, the inquiry naturally arises, why close the door of repentance? Is it Masonic to do so? "The rule and guide of our faith and practice," teaches us that one who acknowledged himself the chief of sinners, repented and became an acceptable and zealous defender of the faith he once openly denounced. To err is human, and some may err more grossly than others; but the unpardonable sin has not as yet been clearly defined, and should we as Masons assume a prerogative which has not been delegated to man? Suspensions for non-payment of dues, and indefinite suspensions for minor moral delinquencies, and expulsions for those of the most serious character, would embrace all that was necessary.

A difficulty has for sometime existed in Roanoke Lodge, No. 8, growing out of a pecuniary transaction. A history of the case, as far as the facts have been ascertained, will be found in the papers of the Grand Master, No. 2.

In thus mentioning the case, it is not designed to ask the consideration of the Grand Lodge, but merely as a note of reference for the future attention of the Grand Master, who, I presume, will bring to your attention should he, upon further investigation, find Masonic delinquency in the Lodge, or some of its members, as seems to be indirectly charged.

In addition to the Commission appointed at your last Grand Annual Communication, two others have been raised for the trial of Past Masters. The labors of neither have been brought to a close.

With this session my official connection terminates. I beg of you, brethren, to review my acts with Masonic charity and accord to me at least the effort on my part in all things to discharge the duties of the high trust reposed in me to the best of my ability. Allow me to renew my expression of sincere obligation for the honor conferred, and as an appreciation thereof, on the floor, it will be my highest pride to contribute my humble efforts at all times for the good of our beloved Institution.

JOHN ROBIN MCDANIEL.

Resolved, That the Address of the Most Wor. Grand Master be referred to a Select Committee composed of Wors. P. B. Starke, T. P. August, John Dudley Davis, Wm. E. Wiatt and John F. Regnault.

MASONIC TEMPLE ASSOCIATION.

The Most Wor. Brother, John R. McDaniel, as President of the Masonic Temple Association of Va., made the following Report, which was received and ordered to be recorded:

RICHMOND, DEC. 9TH, 1861.

To the M. W. Grand Lodge of Virginia:

The Board of Trustees of the Masonic Temple Association have nothing of progress to report, owing to circumstances well known to all.

The operations for the year have been as follows:

RECEIPTS.

From rent of Lot to Davies,	$826 00
" " " Woodward,	100 00
		$926 00

PAID DURING THE YEAR.

Taxes,	353 20
Stationery and printing,	9 25
On acct. bond for purchase of real estate,	1,500 00
N. H. Forbes' acct. 1st July,	50 00
		1,912 45
Due Treasurer,		$986 25

The condition of the Association is as follows:

ASSETS.

By amount due by bills and notes,	$1,673 03
" " " subscriptions,	9,525 00
Corporation Bond of Lynchburg,	500 00
Due from Grand Lodge,	3,200 00
Due from Dove Lodge, No. 51,	1,250 00
Due from John Doran,	5 00
Due from Davies for rent,	619 50
Due from Woodward for rent,	200 00
		16,972 53

LIABILITIES.

To amount due upon real estate,	8,500 00
" " " C. W. Purcell,	986 25
		9,486 25
Balance of assets,		6,486 38
To which add real estate purchased, cost,		30,000 00
		$36,486 38

The real estate is put down in the above estimate at cost. The present value, however, cannot be less than $40,000.

The Board feel confident of being enabled to rent it for the next year, and as it shall be needed for purpose of building so as to nett six per cent. per annum on the cost.

The Board do not think it proper to speculate as to the period at which the building may be commenced. The policy (which they fortunately adopted) of raising the necessary funds to ensure its completion before commencing, should, in their opinion, be continued.

In due time, vigorous efforts will be made, and they cherish the hope that, at no distant day, you will be enabled to celebrate with "thanksgiving and praise," an edifice more flattering to your pride.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN ROBIN MCDANIEL, Chairman.

TREASURER'S STATEMENT.

RICHMOND, DEC. 7TH, 1861.

JOHN R. MCDANIEL, ESQ.,

Chairman Committee Masonic Temple Association:

Dear Sir and Brother,—I herewith hand you a statement of the condition of the Association, by which it will be perceived that there is a balance due the Treasurer of $102 93, and a further balance due on the bond of $5,000, to the heirs of the late Archibald Blair, of $3,500, which bond, with interest, became due and payable the 1—4 of April, 1861. There is another, and the last, bond due in April 1862, for the same amount.

The condition of the country at this time precludes the possibility of collecting subscriptions already made, and the same cause will explain why the subscription list has not been enlarged; our citizens, at present, being unwilling to embark in any new enterprises, and a large portion of our Masonic Fraternity absent in the war.

It will be perceived that the rent of the lot, purchased at a cost of $30,000, has yielded only a rent of $1,026, subject to a State and city tax of $226, leaving an income of $799.37 or about $2\frac{5}{8}$ per cent. per annum. This low rent was unavoidable, owing to the fact, as you are aware, that we anticipated an early day for the commencement of the building, and the tenants held their leases at our pleasure, and were willing and ready to surrender them at any time. Believing that we would be unable to do anything the coming year in the way of building, I propose, with the concurrence of your Committee, to rent the entire lot for one year from 1st January next for $1,800 and the taxes thereon.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

C. W. PURCELL,

Treasurer Masonic Temple Association.

RICHMOND, DEC. 9TH, 1861.

To the Right Wor. Grand Master of Virginia:

Dear Sir and Brother,—I have the honor again to address you, and regret that it is not in my power to lay before your Grand Lodge any communication from the Grand Lodge of Ireland or your Representative there, which is entirely owing to the unhappy condition our Masonic correspondence is reduced to by the detestable Yankee host, regardless of the ties that did bind and cement our noble institution at all points of the Compass.

All of the proceedings of Masonry at the last annual meeting were forwarded to the Lodge I have the honor to represent, and to several distinguished brethren in England and Scotland, through the medium of her Britannic Majesty's Minister at Washington.

I have the honor to be,

Very fraternally and respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

PEYTON JOHNSTON.

Representative of the Grand Lodge of Ireland.

Ordered, That this Grand Lodge be now closed, until to-morrow evening, at 6 o'clock.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EXPENSES OF GRAND LODGE.

The Committee on the Expenses of the Grand Lodge made the following report, which was adopted:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Virginia:

The Committee to whom was referred the resolution directing an inquiry as to the expediency of devising some plan whereby the expenses of the Grand Lodge may be diminished, has given to it their consideration, and are fully impressed with the importance of the Grand Lodge practising at all times, but more especially at present, the most rigid economy. From the Grand Treasurer they learn that, in all probability, the receipts of the Grand Lodge for the ensuing Masonic year will not be sufficient to meet the current expenses, by perhaps some $600 or $800. To meet this deficiency, the Grand Lodge will have to make some provision at its present or some future Grand Communication. Your Committee have had great difficulty in selecting any item of expenditure which could with safety and prudence be curtailed; but from the foregoing statement, respecting the probable condition of the treasury for the next year, they are satisfied that it is of the utmost importance that all the means of the Grand Lodge should be used with the strictest economy. There is one item of expense which your Committee think may be safely curtailed, to wit, the item of printing, which is, perhaps, the largest item of expense incurred by the Grand Lodge. It has been the custom to print, as part of the proceedings of the Grand Lodge, full returns of all the Subordinate Lodges in this jurisdiction. Your Committee has been informed by the Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary, that the costs of printing can be diminished over one-half by leaving out of said proceedings, for a year or two, the names of the members of Subordinate Lodges, only inserting the Officers and Past Masters. The saving to the Grand Lodge in this item will far more than compensate for any inconvenience to the Grand Lodge or the Subordinate Lodges, in not having a full list of the members of the Subordinate Lodges in the printed proceedings. Your Committee therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Grand Secretary leave out of the printed proceedings of the Grand Lodge, until otherwise ordered by the Grand Lodge, the names of the members of the Subordinate Lodges, only inserting the names of the Master, Wardens and Past Masters.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

EDWARD H. LANE, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence made their report, which was adopted, as follows:

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence respectfully report that they have received the printed communications of the following Grand Lodges, to wit: Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Kansas, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Maryland, Mississippi, Michigan, North Carolina, New Jersey, New York, New Hampshire, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont and Wisconsin.

These have been perused with care, and while there still seems to exist some unsettled cases of Masonic Jurisprudence, it is with much pleasure we perceive nearly all have been adjusted in perfect accordance with the decisions of this Grand Lodge, as they have been from time to time promulgated from the Digest of the "Virginia Text Book." We congratulate the Fraternity throughout our correspondence on the harmony which is reported to exist in every Grand Jurisdiction, and fervently add our prayers for its continuance.

A few communications have been received from Grand Masters bearing on the distracted political condition of our suffering country, but on these we forbear to comment, and would earnestly deprecate any concerted movement on the part of the Masonic Fraternity, as such, to interfere in any shape with the discordant political questions now agitating the public mind. With these our glorious old Institution has nothing to do; its mission is, "Peace on earth and good will to mankind;" and when, by the relentless force of patriotic duty, it becomes necessary for the Mason to assume the character of soldier he should never be unmindful of the Divine attributes with which his sword is emblazoned—Faith, Hope and Charity! Thus, with a well-grounded Faith in the justice of his cause, with firmness of purpose he grasps its hilt, and wielding its blade in confident Hope of successful victory, he may restrain its point in Charity, and shew mercy to a prostrate foe.

All which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN DOVE, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MASONIC JURISPRUDENCE.

The Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence made their report, which was adopted, in form following:

The Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence, to whom was referred "the resolution directing inquiry into the expediency of reporting a form of summons to be used by Subordinate Lodges to convene members on special meetings," beg leave to report that they had the same under consideration, and believing that any form of summons or notification, whether verbal or written, except where some law requires the same to be in writing, is good and sufficient, submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That, in the opinion of the Grand Lodge, it is inexpedient to prescribe any form of summons.

Your Committee had under consideration the resolution "contemplating a repeal of the law passed by the Grand Lodge, in 1856, respecting Non-Affiliated Masons," and, as the result of their deliberation, report the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is inexpedient to repeal said law.

Various letters, addressed to the Grand Secretary upon matters of Masonic Jurisprudence, were considered by the Committee. They conclude that the answers to these letters were satisfactory, but not having been furnished with copies of the same, they have no means of knowing whether the Grand Secretary correctly defined the questions of law raised, but presume that he did, well knowing his ability and experience.

The Committee have given as much consideration to the resolution directing them "to report to the Grand Lodge, whether or not, according to Masonic law, a Master or Past Master can be suspended by the Lodge of which he is a member for non-payment of dues," as limited time would permit, and being unable at present to come to a satisfactory conclusion as respects the case of a Master, and the decision not being necessary to action on the proposition from which the question arose, submit that that branch of the question be postponed for future consideration, being one of great importance. But they are unanimous in the opinion, that a Subordinate Lodge has the right to suspend a Past Master for non-payment of dues, in conformity with the By-Laws of the Lodge of which he is a member.

All which is respectfully submitted,

EDWARD H. LANE,
MAYO B. CARRINGTON,
JAMES B. CAMPBELL,
WM. WERTENBAKER.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS.

The Special Committee on the Grand Master's Address made the following report, which was confirmed:

The Special Committee, to whom was referred the Grand Master's Address, beg leave, most respectfully, to submit the following report:

They heartily recommend the publication in the printed proceedings of the correspondence upon the subject of our national troubles, between Most Wor. Bro. John R. McDaniel, and Most Wor. Bro. Winslow Lewis, Grand Master of Massachusetts.

With regard to the trial of "Unaffiliated Masons belonging to sister jurisdictions," for un-Masonic conduct, your Committee deem the case amply provided for by Article 4, Section 1, (p. 243,) of the Methodical Digest.

Your Committee would respectfully call the attention of our Most Wor. Grand Master, to Most Wor. Bro. McDaniel's reference to the case of Lodge, No. 8. And if, upon examination, he shall deem it proper, we would recommend the appointment of a Commission to investigate and decide upon the case.

Your Committee, with regret, take official leave of our late Most Wor. Grand Master. They would here express their high appreciation of his Masonic zeal, ability and usefulness, and of the excellent manner in which he has discharged the onerous duties and responsibilities of his office. They would tender to him, in behalf of the Grand Lodge, their most fervent wishes that his life may be long spared to us, to assist us in our labors and to guide us with his counsel.

Respectfully submitted,

POWHATAN B. STARKE, Chairman.
WILLIAM E. WIATT,
JOHN F. REGNAULT.

Correspondence upon the subject of our National Troubles between Most Wor. Bro. John R. McDaniel and Most Wor. Bro. Winslow Lewis, Grand Master of Massachusetts.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND MASTER OF MASONS IN MASSACHUSETTS.
BOSTON, Dec. 10th, 1860.

Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Virginia:

DEAR BROTHER,—The period has arrived (alas! that it should ever be so) when it behooves every one who has lived and flourished under the benign influences of our "glorious Union," to exert his best endeavors to obviate that sad impulse which threatens its dissolution. In the relations of fellow-citizens of a wide-spread Republic, our efforts have proved ineffectual. Fanaticism is the predominant demon, and the ties which have bound the South and North so long together, which carried them shoulder to shoulder in the days of our fathers, and have continued them in their prosperity as a united nation, are now in preparation to be severed.

Is it too late to avert the calamity? Is there naught remains of conservatism to be tried? Have we not an institution which binds us together, not only as fellow-citizens, but as brothers; and as brothers, can we lacerate those pledges the foundation of our Faith and Practice? Therefore may we not look to it as a strong element to allay the bitter anguish of these dark days in our nation's history.

It was my good fortune to visit Richmond with a branch of our Order, and to witness and feel the mighty operation which cemented the hearts of all the participants on that occasion.

The influences of that meeting are ineffaceable—the impress indelible. With such feelings of so powerful a fraternization, how disunion must pall the hearts of those whose affections as brothers are so warmed towards these so dear to them in Virginia, and as one, I was resolved to pour out my own, and to express to you what I deem to be the predominant sentiment in Boston, if not in the whole jurisdiction over which I have the honor to preside, and I assure you, my dear brother, that we cling to you, not only as brothers, but as fellow-citizens; and may that evil day be far removed, when Virginia and Massachusetts, the States which gave to our country a Washington and a Franklin, and to Free Masonry two of its brightest lights, shall be found opposed as enemies, and severed as components of United States.

May God avert that terrible issue; and may He instil into the hearts of all of our Order, the observance of that precept of His Holy Word, that first lesson to every neophyte in Free Masonry, "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity;" and may all under your fraternal jurisdiction, demonstrate by their acts, that in the "Old Dominion," as well as among ourselves of the "Old Bay State," union as fellow-citizens, and Brotherly Love as Masons, shall now in this the perilous hour, as heretofore, under the days of prosperity, be their aim and resolve.

"So mote it be."

Fraternally yours,

WINSLOW LEWIS, M. D.
G. Master of Massachusetts.

REPLY OF THE GRAND MASTER OF VIRGINIA.

Lynchburg, Dec. 31st, 1860.

Dr. Winslow Lewis, Grand Master of Massachusetts, Boston:

Most Worshipful Sir and Dear Brother,—Your very kind and fraternal favor of the 10th instant came duly to hand, and would have met with an earlier response had I been physically able so to do. By a fall a few nights before, I strained my right wrist and broke both bones in my right arm, which caused me much suffering. I am, and shall be for some time yet, unable to use it.

I most cordially unite with you in mourning the threatened destruction of our once glorious Republic.

It is sad to think of it, that the Stars and Stripes, the emblem of the noble patriotism of the heroes of the Revolution, and which has ever since floated in triumph, both on sea and land, wherever it has been thrown to the breeze, should now, by internal dissensions, be torn into shreds and "scatterd to the four winds of Heaven."

As a body we can do nothing; but did every individual brother possess, and yield to the dictates of so true and fraternal a heart as beats in your bosom, much could be done as individuals—indeed this state of things would never have existed. Masonry teaches us to be "quiet and peaceful citizens, and cheerfully to submit to the government of the country in which we live." The tenets of our profession teach us to "render to every man his just dues;" but alas! Puritanical fanaticism seems to be the order of the day; constitutional rights are trampled under foot, and the same mad career which attacked our beloved institution in former times, is now leveling its shafts at our country. Can the shield of Masonry avert the deadly thrust? I fear not; but it may do much to weaken its force. Let each individual brother, whether at the North or at the South, feel the awful responsibility that rests upon him, and apply to his conduct the Plumb, the Level and the Square, and whatever they dictate as right, that do, and do it with a will.

The Masonic fireside, and in the body of the respective Lodges, are the places to correct this evil. There impress upon them the duty of going forth as individuals, exerting the influence of its teachings as good and true Masons should.

No Mason should be ostracised for his opinions in religion or politics when within proper bounds. The atheist is excluded, as so should be the enemy of his country.

I do not propose to discuss the questions which now agitate the country, but rather pursue the truly Masonic spirit of your letter, and seek means by which to allay the excitement.

Gladly would I co-operate in any proper way to effect the object, but in all sincerity and unfeigned regret, I say that all is now in vain. The Union is beyond doubt dissolved, and the only hope that remains is, that a peaceful separation may be effected, and the conservative element of both sections may so exert themselves, as to secure the most friendly relations; so that whilst we may not be able to live as one family, we may nevertheless continue forever good neighbors.

The blood of the Old Confederacy is upon the intriguing and unprincipled politicians, and the wolves in Christian clothing. They are welcome to the honor of their achievements. Masonry, pure and genuine, bearing the impress of our "Great High Priest," I trust, will remain unshaken, and whilst it cannot shield our beloved country from the impending storm, yet secure in our existence, we can continue to live in the full existence of Brotherly Love without regard to geographical bounds or political divisions.

Your friend and brother,

JOHN ROBIN McDANIEL, G. M. of Va.

MAYFIELD LODGE, NO. 134.

The Committee on Grievances and Appeals made the following report, which was adopted:

The Chairman of the Committee on Grievances and Appeals, begs leave to report that owing to the arrival of Bro. Wilson Holleman in this city, after a majority of the Committee had left, he is unable to report on his the only case before them.

THOMAS L. FARISH.

Resolved, That a Commission of three skillful Past Masters be appointed to proceed to Mayfield, Isle of Wight, and investigate the difficulties now existing in Mayfield Lodge, No. 134, and report their decision to the Most Wor. Grand Master.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PROCEEDINGS OF GRAND OFFICERS.

The Committee on the Doings of Grand Officers made the following, report which was adopted:

To the Most Wor. Grand Lodge of Virginia:

Your Committee, to whom was referred the Proceedings of Grand Officers, during recess, submit the following report:

1. Grand Master.

The records show that, notwithstanding the duties of Grand Master are becoming "more extensive," the firmness, ability, zeal and courtesy, which the late incumbent has exhibited throughout his term of office, has proved him to have been fully equal to the high trust reposed in him: Therefore,

Resolved, That the thanks of this Grand Lodge, are due and are hereby tendered to Most Wor. John Robin McDaniel for the able and distinguished manner with which he discharged the duties of Grand Master.

2. Grand Treasurer.

This Grand Lodge cannot withhold from the Wor. Grand Treasurer, the confidence and esteem he is entitled to for the efficient and accurate discharge of the duties of his office.

3. Grand Secretary.

Wor. John Dove, in the discharge of his ardous duties as Grand Secretary, continues to exhibit the zeal, energy and skill, which characterized this distinguished Mason.

4. Grand Lecturer.

No report of this Grand officer having been received, the committee are not prepared to report on his proceedings for the last year; but have no doubt from his well-known accuracy and zeal, that whenever called upon, he has dispensed "light in Masonry" as directed by this Grand Lodge.

5. D. D. Grand Masters.

Your Committee regret to report that but fourteen District Deputy Grand Masters have reported to this Lodge, owing, no doubt, to the unhappy and distracted state of the country.

Reports have been received from Wor. James B. Campbell, District,

No. 1; Wor. Wm. E. Wiatt, No. 2; M. W. John R. Purdie, No. 6; Wor. John F. Regnault, No. 8; Wor. M. B. Carrington, No. 9; Wor. Arthur Stephens, No. 12; Wor. Geo. W. Rothrock, No. 13; Wor. Wyatt Walker, No. 14; Wor. Wm. M. Wade, No. 16; Wor. Jos. T. Logan, No. 19; Wor. J. A. Templeton, No. 22; Wor. L. L. Waterman, No. 23; Wor. Charles G. Taylor, No. 27, and Wor. R. E. Withers, No. 30.

These reports, generally, concur in representing the Lodges under their respective jurisdictions in a healthy and flourishing condition, although many of their numbers have gone to meet the enemy which is now invading our country, and to protect their homes and firesides.

In regard to the unfortunate "brand of discord which has been burning so fiercely in Mayfield Lodge, No. 134, for several years past," to which the D. D. Grand Master of District No. 6 refers in his report, your Committee, in consideration of the fact that two or more appeals in connection with this unfortunate difficulty will receive the attention of the Committee on Grievances and Appeals, beg leave to be relieved from an investigation and leave the matter with the latter Committee.

The District Deputy Grand Master of District No. 8 reports that there is a want of the necessary knowledge of the work and lectures with the officers of many of the Lodges, within his jurisdiction, to perform the work correctly or to teach properly the lessons of Masonry. Your Committee look upon this as a most serious evil, and submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Lodges in District No. 8, be earnestly requested to procure the services of the Grand Lecturer and perfect themselves in the work and lectures according to the Ritual, as adopted by this Grand Lodge.

All of which is fraternally submitted,

WM. L. MAULE,
WM. E. WIATT,
THOMAS L. FARISH.

December, A. L. 5861, A. D. 1861.
